

Pacifica gives you information you can't get from commercial radio.

Pacifica Radio brings you in-depth national and international coverage that is free from commercial influence. We address issues of social justice, culture, activism and the environment.

We get at the truth. We break stories and give you information that you won't get from commercial news sources. Pacifica truly is media for democracy.

Pacifica airs innovative, international programming:

- Timely and truthful coverage of wars, demonstrations, government hearings, elections, and other events of international importance
- Democracy Now!, the award-winning daily news magazine hosted by Amy Goodman and Juan Gonzales
- Free Speech Radio News, daily newscast featuring more than 200 correspondents around the world
- Informativo Pacifica, groundbreaking daily Spanish language newscast
- Countless community-based productions from an international network of more than 100 grassroots radio stations
- International radio collaborations and program exchanges
- Support for independent & community radio stations around the world

To learn more or listen on-line, go to www.pacifica.org

"We credit much of our success in a rural community to the credibility, strength and direction derived from our Pacifica affiliation."

Matt Cook
President, KBRP-LP
Bisbee AZ

"Pacifica brings people together and helps us safeguard freedom of speech."

David Owens
General Manager, KOPN
Columbia MO

Photo: Ian Forrest

"For democracy to work, people need access to diverse sources of news and information."

Amy Goodman
Host of "Democracy Now"

Photo: Chet Gordon

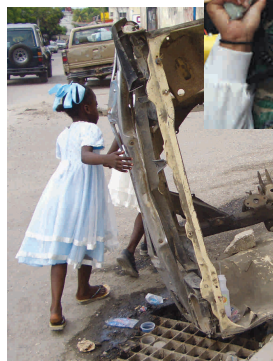

Photo: Vanessa Bertozzi

Photo: Poppyseed Bandits

Photo: Soldiers Media Center

"Pacifica programming gives voice to progressive perspectives that are absent from commercial media."

Mary Aigner
Program Director, KZYX

Photo: Matthew Bradley

Photo: Groovehouse

Photo: Clarissa Peterson

Photo: Peter A. Stinson